Supt. Pennsylvania Conference

REV. A. B.
STATTON, D. D.
*Minister St. Paul's
U. B. Church,
Hagerstown, Md.*

THREE quarters of a century have passed since The First Church of the United Brethren in Christ was organized in our city. Whatever the disappointments encountered, on the whole success has crowned the efforts under the guidance and blessing of Almighty God. One by one, as time moves on, the workers are gathered home. The inspiration of their faith and labor in the Lord is our common heritage. It behooves us, as we have opportunity, with prayer and thanksgiving, to serve the Lord with a pure heart fervently.

That we may hold sacred in memory the celebration of this Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the organization of our congregation, this souvenir is respectfully dedicated and offered to the members and friends of The First Church of the United Brethren in Christ of York, Pennsylvania.

A. A. LONG, Pastor.

HE picture of the church as it appears in this souvenir is a fair representation of the church at the present time.

The lot on which it stands was purchased in 1782 by Jacob Settler, who erected thereon a meeting-house and presented it to the Methodist Episcopal Church. In it was organized the first Methodist society of the city. This was a result of the work of Freeborn Garretson, who first preached in a private house near the place.

After some years this frame building was replaced by a brick church in which the Methodists worshipped until our people purchased it from them.

At the suggestion of the old Otterbein church in Baltimore, Md., the Pennsylvania Conference sent a missionary to York in 1840 to organize a United Brethren society. The Missionary society of the Otterbein church paid two hundred dollars a year for several years to the support of the mission.

Rev. Christian Crider was appointed to begin the work. The lot and brick church above referred to and the adjoining graveyard were purchased by our people for $1,500.00. The first Board of Trustees was composed of Peter Rauhouser, of Dover; Adam Strayer, of Winterstown; and Jacob Ehrhart, of Dover. At this time there were no members of the United Brethren Church in the town. Rev. Mr. Crider soon effected an organization and served as pastor for two years.

Rev. Jacob Rinehart became pastor in 1843. During his term a parsonage was built; the house now owned by the Durr estate, standing a few doors north of the church. The basement of this building for a long time was used for prayer and class-meeting.

Rev. Enoch Hoffman was next appointed pastor in 1845. He remained two years. The work of the church at this time became so discouraging that the mission was in danger of being abandoned. Forty-three members were reported, with $117.00 as pastor's salary paid. Bishop Hanby, presiding at the Conference, with tears in his eyes pleaded that they "try it one more year".

Rev. J. C. Smith was accordingly appointed pastor in 1847. This was the beginning of a new era in the history of the church. When he came the church was dilapidated in appearance, burdened with debt, and the membership poor and disheartened. At the end of four years he left the church in a good financial condition with one hundred and fifty active members.

Revs. W. B. Wagner, 1851; Tobias Crider, 1852; W. B. Wagner, 1853-55, were his immediate successors; each of whom served the church well during an uneventful period of time.

Rev. W. B. Raber became pastor in 1855, serving two years. About this time the present parsonage was built at a cost of $3,000.00.

Rev. J. C. Smith began a second pastorate of four years in 1857, during which the membership increased to 237.

Rev. S. Enterline was appointed pastor in 1861, and Rev. Jacob Erb in 1864. During these troublous times of civil strife many men of the congregation enlisted in active service for the country.

Rev. J. C. Smith began a third pastorate in 1866. During this term of five years the old church was torn down, and the present brick building, 75 by 46 feet, was erected at a cost of $13,000.00. The building committee consisted of Charles Lafean, Rev. Daniel Eberly, Jacob Allison, Henry Lucking and Rev. J. C. Smith.

At the close of this term, the membership had increased to 357. To Rev. J. C. Smith this congregation is indebted as to no other minister for its present standing. In all, he served the church thirteen years. This church stands as a monument to his memory.

Rev. W. B. Raber began a second pastorate in 1871. At the close of his fourth year, during the meeting of the annual conference, he died. During this pastorate the Second U. B. church of the city was organized with a present membership of about five hundred. He was generally recognized as a man of marvelous preaching ability. In those days "there was a general desire to hear RABER".

Rev. J. P. Smith became pastor in 1875. His term of service was characterized by great revivals and large accessions to the membership of the church.

Rev. J. P. Miller began a pastorate of three years in 1879, characterized by energy, activity and success. At present he is pastor of a Congregational Church in Minneapolis, Minn.

Rev. J. R. Meredith served the church faithfully and efficiently from 1882 to 1885. During his term the church was repaired and partly refurnished at a cost of $1,500.00.

Rev. I. H. Albright was appointed pastor in 1885 and remained five years, during which time many were added to the church. He also assisted in the organization of the Third U. B. Church, with a present membership of about three hundred and fifty; and the Fourth U. B. Church, with a present membership of about four hundred and fifty.

To Dr. Albright, as the historian of our churches in York County, we are indebted for the facts contained in this historical sketch. He is now pastor of the U. B. Church in Middletown, Pa.

Rev. J. D. Killian became pastor in 1890, and served two years. During his pastorate the church celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its organization with appropriate services extending over one week, beginning October 11, 1890. A souvenir of the occasion was issued by M. S. Meredith and F. W. Porter as publishers.

Rev. M. J. Heberly served the congregation as pastor from 1892 to 1894. His work was characterized by earnestness, faithfulness and devotion to his highest ideals of right. About this time York Fifth Church was organized, with a present membership of approximately three hundred.

Rev. H. B. Spayd enjoys the distinction of serving the congregation for the longest unbroken term of years, 1894 to 1902. A successful pastorate. He is now pastor of the Third U. B. Church, Los Angeles, California.

Rev. C. L. Wiswaeser became pastor in 1902 and served for several months more than a year. He was a gifted preacher of the Word. A large pipe organ was placed in the church during his pastorate at a cost of $2,000.00.

Rev. Joseph Daugherty was appointed pastor in October, 1903, and served four years. With the beginning of his pastorate the use of the German language was discontinued at the preaching services. The church was favored with large revivals, resulting in many conversions and one hundred and seventy-four accessions to the membership.

Rev. Jacob A. Gohn became pastor in 1907 and served four years. During his pastorate the church was completely remodeled at a cost of approximately $3,500.00. For many years our congregation enjoyed the distinction of being the banner church in the Pennsylvania conference, in the raising of money for missions and other benevolences. It was during this pastorate that the Official Board assumed the responsibility to raise $500.00 a year for the support of the Rev. J. Hal Smith in the Kono Land, West Africa, and continued to do so until the new budget system, enacted by the General Conference of 1913, was adopted by the Pennsylvania Conference at its session in 1914. This resulted in a further increase in the benevolent contributions of the church.

Rev. A. A. Long, A. M., D. D., the present incumbent, became pastor in 1911. During these years the weekly Duplex Envelope system was adopted and installed by the congregation; the church and parsonage property repaired and improved at a cost of $1,800.00 approximately; and over two hundred members were added to the church, making the present membership of five hundred.

The Quarterly Conference in session, August 31, 1915, Rev. W. H. Washinger, A. M., D. D., presiding, on recommendation unanimously adopted by the Board of Trustees, authorized the razing of the present church building and the erection of a commodious church and Sunday-school chapel, combined, ground to be broken for the same when a building fund of $10,000.00 or more has been secured.

The campaign for the fund was launched on September 19, 1915, the occasion of this anniversary, by Rev. W. R. Funk, D. D., U. B. Publishing Agent of Dayton, Ohio, resulting in the securing of pledges to an amount aggregating $5,085.00.

A unique feature of the congregation at present is that among the membership are included three ordained ministers of the gospel and their wives; two widows of ministers; nine sons, five daughters, six grandsons, twelve granddaughters, and one great granddaughter of United Brethren ministers; and nine additional descendants of ministers in the Primary Department of the Sunday school, making a total of fifty ministers, wives, and their descendants.

Sunday
Sept. 19, 1915

The Bible school met at 9:45. Four hundred and one were present in all the Departments. Rev. W. R. Funk, D. D., United Brethren Publishing Agent, of Dayton, Ohio, addressed the school. The school, by rising vote, pledged one thousand dollars to the Building Fund for the new church and Sunday-school room.

At 11 o'clock Dr. Funk preached on the subject—"The Victory of Faith in God in the Individual Life", choosing as his text I Samuel 14:6—"It may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few".

At 6 o'clock, the subject of Dr. Funk's sermon was, "Christ, the Hope of Humanity", selecting for his text Luke 18:37. At this service Miss Esther Long, of Columbia, Pa., niece of the pastor, sang "The Holy City". After some closing remarks by the Pastor, and the singing of "How Firm a Foundation", Dr. Funk pronounced the Benediction.

At the morning and evening service, Dr. Funk solicited subscriptions for the Building Fund for the proposed new church. The subscriptions for the day amounted to $5,000.00. This included $1,000.00 from the Sunday School, and $500.00 from "The Ladies' Aid Society".

The form of subscription in substance is as follows:

York, Pa., . . . . ., 19....

I hereby promise to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the First Church of the United Brethren in Christ, York, Pa., for Building Fund, the sum of..... dollars. Payable in.....equal monthly..... quarterly payments.

This pledge becomes binding when $10,000.00 is secured in cash and bona fide subscriptions.

Signed.....
Solicitor.....

The Decorations

On the organ pipes was a cross with the words "Seventy-fifth Anniversary". On one side of the front of the church was the date "1840", on the other side, "1915",—all harmoniously joined with crepe paper, hanging in festoons. The platform was adorned with palms and cut flowers.

On the walls of the lecture room were the photographs of the Rev. Philip William Otterbein, the founder of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ; Martin Boehm, a co-worker with Otterbein; many of the former pastors of the congregation; charter members; pioneers in the history of the congregation, and many other deceased members; a picture of the church that was replaced by the present building; a picture of the front of the auditorium as decorated during the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary in 1890, and a copy of the souvenir issued on that occasion;—more than one hundred in all.

This exhibit proved to be one of the most interesting features of the celebration of this seventy-fifth anniversary. The Committee herewith acknowledges its obligation and expresses its gratitude to all who in any way contributed to its success by lending pictures or otherwise.
